

AUBURN UNIVERSITY

Auburn University

The following resources will assist you as you begin the application for Auburn University:

Freshman Application

Apply to Auburn

Freshman Requirements

Official transcript required. Test-optional is available, but SAT/ACT scores may strengthen the application. The average GPA for admitted freshmen is around 3.6.

Enrollment Timeline

Date	Event/Deadline	Notes/Decision Timing
August 1	Admission application available
September 15	Early Action Admission Round 1	Mid-October decision released
October 1	FAFSA available at gov/fafsa
October 15	Early Action Admission Round 2	Mid-November decision released
Early November	AUSOM Scholarship application available for admitted students

November 15	Early Action Admission Round 3	Mid-December decision released
Mid-November	Begin awarding Merit Scholarships to accepted students	Official ACT/SAT required for merit scholarship consideration
December 1, 2025	Final Early Action Admission Deadline	Must have complete applicant file by this date for scholarship consideration. Early-February decision released
January 12, 2026	ACT/SAT Test Score Received Deadline	Scores received after this date will not count for scholarship consideration
February 1, 2026	Regular Admission Deadline/ FAFSA Due	Early March decision released
February 14, 2026	Financial Aid and Scholarship Priority Deadline
May 1, 2026	Enrollment deposit deadline

In-State Freshman Scholarships

Scholarships at Auburn \(AUSOM\) – automatic merit, need-based (with FAFSA), and departmental awards available.

Additional scholarship resources:

- National Alumni Association Scholarships
- Competitive Scholarships \(via AUSOM\)
- External Scholarships

Visiting Campus:

- Please have them visit the Auburn Campus Tours page to schedule an official campus tour.
- For a more tailored visit that may include an academic college tour, student lunch, and other department meetings, students may submit an In-Depth Visit Request form at least three weeks in advance.

Upcoming events:

- Auburn's War Eagle Days and Daily Tours are listed on the admissions events page.